

The Choice Is Yours Tuesday

An abundance of contests among Democrat hopefuls and some key Republican office contests, should provide sufficient interest in the state primary election on Tuesday.

In Andover, voting will be from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the town's eight polling places, with 4,832 Democrat, 3,839 Republicans and 6,125 unenrolled eligible to participate in the nominating process.

U. S. Senate and congressional races on both Republican and Democrat ballots have produced active campaigns over the past several weeks, while on the Democrats side, contests for state and county offices have had candidates working diligently for voter interest.

Unenrolled, or independent, voters, may cast ballots in Tuesday's primary and will be provided the means to return to their independent status immediately.

Asking for either a Democrat or Republican ballot on Tuesday, the independent voter may also obtain a card at the registration desk which can be filled out and either mailed or returned in person to the town clerk's office. The party designation is then removed.

Enrolled voters may obtain ballots only for their particular designation.

Polling locations are: Precinct one, Free Christian Church; Precinct two, Andover Baptist Church; Precinct three, Cardinal Cushing Gymnasium; Precinct four, West Elementary school (enter via High Plain Road); Precinct five, St. Robert Bellarmine Church; Precinct six, Ballard Vale United Church; Precinct seven, Peabody House, Phillips Academy and Precinct eight, Faith Lutheran Church.

Want 40-Acre Site

Our Industrial Picture Is Snapped By Polaroid

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

That first day of school can be an experience to reckon with, but a break here and there helps, as Natalie Dowell of Bellevue Road pauses for refreshment during the first day of kindergarten activities at Sanborn school.

Polaroid, Corp., world leader in instant photography, has agreed, subject to certain conditions, to purchase a 40-acre site in the Andover Technical Center Industrial Park in West Andover.

Conditions set forth by the company to town officials on Tuesday present minimal, if any problems, and the Andover's administration focussed in on meeting Polaroid's requests immediately.

Robert M. Palmers, director of community relations for Polaroid said "several conditions must be met to Polaroid's satisfaction before the transaction can be completed. These include obtaining necessary approvals from town boards and commissions promptly."

The Polaroid official noted that if necessary approvals are obtained and conditions met, the company plans to break ground next month for the construction of 200,000 square foot light assembly plant for photographic film.

Palmer said that Polaroid officials were particularly impressed with Andover and its officials, who "obviously had done their homework and planned properly for the West Andover industrial site."

Polaroid had examined several sites in other communities and found Andover to be the most prepared and receptive, thus the decision, which was reached Tuesday by its board of directors.

The rush to get started is necessitated by the need for almost constructing the building around the equipment to be used in the light assembly operations.

Palmer explained that the equipment can not be brought in after the building is completed. "What we will be doing is getting a shell together and winterized, in order that the equipment can be placed, then the building completed."

Employment at the new plant would be in the "several hundred" category, Palmer said, with no definite figure available at the moment.

Based on a conservative construction estimate, the proposed West Andover industrial building would be in the vicinity of $6 million and would provide an estimated $200,000 annually in tax revenues to the town.

If Polaroid's timetable is met, the plant could be in operation within a year, Palmer said.

Andover officials met with company representatives Tuesday morning, with Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, Selectman Albert Cole and Susan T. Poore, and Industrial Development Chairman Dr. Lawrence S. Spiegel and IDC Member George Ziady sitting in on discussions for the Polaroid project.

Tuesday afternoon Town Manager Clark said he had asked Conservation Aide Mrs. Virginia Hammon to check on the location of the plant, which will abut Hewlett-Packard property, for any applicable wetlands laws and had been informed

To Abate Shawsheen Water Bills

Shawsheen residents, plagued by dirty water conditions for over a year, will get some financial relief with a six-month abatement on their water bills.

Selectmen, sitting as water commissioners Monday night, approved abatement of the bills for those residents effected in the village with the average cost being about $40.

Water quality has been a problem for residents of the village area, with the water department recently making a final effort toward improvement by cleaning the pipes with a foam-plug.

But, some problems still exist and town meeting in October will be asked to appropriate upwards of $1 million to replace the pipes.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, said the action was not a precedent, since the residents had been provided water, which while potable, was not comparable to that delivered to other residents of the town. The condition existed over a long period of time and the action could not be compared to isolated cases of dirty water problems in other areas of the town, thus the abatement.

Director Selection To Be Soon

The appointment of a community development director may come within the next two to three weeks according to Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark.

Clark informed selectmen this week that the selection process has been moving along well and felt he would be in a position to make the appointment to the new position within the next few weeks.

The director will co-ordinate the efforts of the planning, health, conservation, zoning department, or those agencies which generally deal with the town's growth.

Jurors Drawn

Ten local residents were drawn for jury duty assignments at Essex County Superior Court sittings by selectmen Monday night.

Those chosen were: Robert S. Rose, Jr., 56 Poor St.; Helmut Lutsch, 123 Main St.; Lloyd P. Walker, B4 Colonial Drive; Gerald Marchese, 27 Theodore Ave.; Debra Madden, 40 Colonial Drive; Edna B. Godek, 65 River Road; Matthew P. Ristuccia, 127 Holt Road; Donna M. Brucato, 21 Baker Lane; David Moriarty, 55 Elm St.; David A. Fleming, Jr., 14 Elysian Drive.

Hearing Scheduled On Lodge

Andover residents may express their feelings about the reconstruction of the Recreation Park Lodge at a public meeting of the Recreation/Community Schools Committee to be held on Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at the Haven Building, 11 Essex St. In addition to seeking citizen opinion about whether or not to rebuild the heavily used, rustic structure located in the family activities area of Rec Park, the R/CS Committee will be soliciting views about architectural design for a new building, as well as a possible division of a new building into two distinct function rooms.

The Lodge was destroyed in a July fire, but the loss was partially covered by insurance.

Manning To Address Associates

Frank Manning, president of the Legislative Council of Older Americans will be the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Andover Haven Associates to be held at the Andover Haven, 11

Essex St., Andover, on Thursday, Sept. 21, at 2 p.m. Manning will be speaking on the influence of Senior Citizens as a lobbying group, and the many important issues facing Senior Citizens today.

Downtown Art Fest Scheduled

Chairman of the Andover Center Merchants, Louis C. Pfeifle announced today that the Annual Art Festival Week will take place from Sept. 25 through Sept. 29 in conjunction with the Andover Artists Guild preceding the Art-In-The-Park scheduled for Sept. 30.

Downtown Andover will become a cultural center of the arts as part of this week long exhibits in stores, banks, and insurance businesses. All displays will be the works of the Andover Artists Guild with President Lee Ann Center and Norma Gammon as Chairman.

The festival is a celebration of fall and the exuberance of the arts. The gaiety of the event softens the sometimes grim and hectic work-day.

Evening Program Registration

Registration for the 1978 Fall Andover Department of Community Services Program and Phillips Academy Evening Study Program will be held on Monday, Sept. 18 from 7-8:30 p.m. at the following locations: East Jr. High, West Jr. High, Sanborn and the Phillips Academy Underwood Room. Unless otherwise indicated, all classes will begin on Monday, Sept. 25. Residents of Andover should be prepared to show proof of residency.

The Department of Community Services has a wide variety of new courses to add to its program this fall.

Many Offices Contested In Primary

Andover Voting Precinct Lines

Republican contests for nomination as U. S. Senator, congressman, Governor and Lt. Governor, and campaigns for almost all offices on the Democrat ballot, provide the interest in Tuesday's primary election.

On the Republican side, voters will be keying on the race between U. S. Senator Edward W. Brooke who is being challenged by Avi Nelson, in what is considered the key contest on the ballot.

For Congress, Nicholas D. Rizzo, Andover psychiatrist, is seeking the nomination against Middlesex County Sheriff John J. Buckley.

Edward F. King, who received the convention endorsement as party candidate for Governor faces the challenge of State Rep. Francis W. Hatch of Beverly.

Peter L. McDowell, also convention choice of the state GOP, faces William L. Cowin, who is the Hatch choice for lieutenant governor.

For Andover voters in precincts six, seven and eight, the choice of a new state senator is to be made between Nicola A. Barletta, of Rockport and State Robert C. Buell of Boxford. The seat was held by Sen. William Saltonstall who is not seeking re-election.

On the Democrat ballot, only State Rep. Gerald M. Cohen of Andover, State Sen. William X. Wall, representing precincts one through five and Governor's Councilor John F. Markey of North Andover have no opposition.

Most local interest centers on the race for the nomination for fifth district congressman which is becoming vacant through the decision of incumbent Paul Tsongas to seek the U. S. Senate nomination.

In the congressional race are Ronald A. Burba, a Lawrence professor; Robert F. Hatem, of Lowell, who was vice president for development at Merrimack College until July; John K. Markey of Lawrence, a

For the state senate seat, Senator Sharon Pollard is facing the man she defeated two years ago, former Sen. James B. Rurak of Haverhill.

Bus Service Surveys Scheduled

William Schultz, administrator of the Merrimack Valley Regional Transit Authority announced today that the authority will conduct two surveys of patrons using the Lawrence area bus system. One survey, called an on-board survey, which is scheduled for later this month will ask patrons routine questions to determine the characteristics of the current ridership. The importance of this survey, according to Schultz, is to find out who is riding the MVRTA bus service, for example, the number of elderly and non-elderly riders, trip purpose and other related information.

The second survey is a consumer survey and is, according to Schultz, the first such survey to be taken on the local bus system. This survey, also planned for later this month, will ask patrons their opinion on vehicle condition, on time performance, driver performance, information aides, system security, and system routing. Schultz feels that this survey will provide the MVRTA with valuable information on how current riders view their transit service. Responses to both surveys will be strictly confidential and will be grouped for analysis purposes.

Schultz stated that these surveys will provide the authority with the needed information to enable the Authority to provide quality bus service for the residents of the Greater Lawrence area.

The surveys are being conducted on behalf of the authority by the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission as part of the Commission's Transportation Program.

There are more than 5 million motorcycles registered in this country according to figures compiled by the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Abutters Express Concerns On Life-Care Proposal

Only 50 to 75 of the 250 apartments in the proposed development at Abbot Academy would be filled by Andover residents, according to the president of Living Care Services, Inc.

Fred Weitz, president of the Iowa-based firm that hopes to build an elderly apartment complex and 60-bed nursing home on the property, told about 30 neighborhood residents Thursday night the complex will draw its occupants from the entire North Shore area.

The high financial requirements for residency, said Weitz, would necessitate appealing to residents from other areas. Weitz cited the average incomes and net worth of residents in a similar complex built by the firm in Minneapolis, Minn. as a basis for comparison.

In that project, the average overall worth of residents before moving in is $151,000 and the average monthly income including social security is $1,312, he said.

Persons entering the complex would pay a one-time endowment between $30,000 and $40,000, depending on the size of the apartment, said Weitz.

Monthly maintenance fees would be about $400 for one person and $600 a couple, said Weitz, although the monthly fees would be increased to keep up with inflation.

The monthly fee would include all utilities, including local telephone service, weekly maid service, one meal a day, transportation and various social activities.

If a resident required care in the nursing home, said Weitz, the monthly fee would be the same, except for the additional cost of two more meals a day.

Weitz said the nursing home is essential to the complex, and if a certificate of need is not obtained from the state the firm would withdraw the proposal.

Philip Rogers, vice president of Living Care Services, Inc., said as the nursing home begins operations it will take patients from outside the complex, who would pay the $1,300 to $1,500 monthly rate. The nursing home would also accept medicaid patients during the startup period, he said.

Many of the neighborhood residents attending the meeting indicated they were concerned about the impact a 250-apartment complex and a nursing home would have on the single family residential neighborhood.

Dwain Smith, 62 Abbot St., questioned whether the town would be as supportive of the project if it was not backed by Phillips Academy.

"Maybe we need such a project in Andover," said Smith, "but it will change the character of the neighborhood. If Phillips Academy was not involved in the project I don't think the selectmen would have approved it."

Selectmen Edward M. Harris said some of the neighbors "were missing the point."

"The property belongs to Phillips," said Harris. "They can't support it." Harris noted the property was zoned residential "a long time ago," but Abbot Academy occupied the property for many years despite the zoning.

"Phillips Academy has to do something with it," said Harris. "This is something between the two of them (the academy and the firm). I thought it an excellent solution to the use of the land."

John McGettrick, 45 School St., suggested that when Phillips and Abbot Academy merged, it was done with the intent to eventually phase out the Abbott Academy campus.

McGettrick said area residents bought property with the anticipation the residential nature of the area would be protected by single family zoning. "We don't see any such protection," he said.

Weitz told the neighborhood residents, "If I lived across the street I'd feel as apprehensive as you do about the impact on the neighborhood," but added that based on past history with other projects, "I believe the impact will be neutral at least."

Weitz offered to pay the fares for neighborhood residents to visit other complexes built by the firm so they could judge the impact of such projects.

Weitz said his firm would be willing to work with the Andover Historical Society or some other architectural overseer group to be certain the new buildings would be in keeping with the character of the campus.

The project will pay property taxes, said Weitz, but he added that if in the future the legislature votes to exempt such organizations from paying taxes they would also file for exempt status.

Harris said the selectmen have no indication as of yet as to the amount of taxes that would be paid. "There is no way to establish offhand the taxes on the property, because there are too many variables," he said.

Weitz said Living Care Services would not own the project, but would simply function as contractors for building the project, and then would be hired to manage the complex. A non-profit organization would be formed that would lease the property from Phillips Academy, borrow construction funds, and execute the residency agreements with the occupants, said Weitz.

Because the property is currently zoned single family residential, a zoning change will be required. The planning board will place a new zoning category on the warrant for the October town meeting, which will create a special life care category.

Mrs. Dorothy Feinman, 15 Locke St., voiced the concerns of some residents regarding the zoning change.

"Changing the zoning bylaws is serious," said Mrs. Feinman. "when changes are made you never see them going up, and once a change is made it is very difficult to undue."

Jamboree Tops Off Summer Camp

More than 60 parents and siblings turned out for an Indian Jamboree that celebrated the end of Camp Stepping Stone at West Elementary School.

Sponsored by the Greater Lawrence Educational Collaborative, the daily camp program for multiply handicapped youngsters evolved because the staff felt the skill programs the youngsters have during the year should be carried on through the summer to be effective.

The 33 campers ranged in age from 8 to 20; 17 of them live at home, while 16 were transported daily from the Hogan Regional Center.

Working with them, often on a one-to-one basis, was a staff of 21 teachers and volunteers, "a full complement" of speech, physical, occupational and recreational specialists.

In addition to the skill programs the youngsters also went on field trips every week, to such spots as Plum Island, Benson's Animal Farm, the Children's Museum, the Aquarium and Logan Airport. They also swam at the Vo Tech and participated in Special Olympics.

Collaborative Director Malchan Stanley called the six-week camp a "tremendous success" and complimented Co-Directors Bernie Pierce and Pamela McIntyre. He said the camp was an "excellent example of the type of high quality program we can offer our special needs children when all our communities cooperate with each other."

The youngsters are from Andover, North Andover, Lawrence and Methuen.

Will Purchase Computers

Voters at the October town meeting will be asked to appropriate $500,000 for a new computer system for the town.

Agreement was reached at a joint meeting of several town boards last week on the outright purchase of the equipment rather than lease-purchase as originally contemplated.

In view of the change in plans, a request for a transfer of $20,000 from the reserve fund, which would have allowed the town manager to enter into agreements on the lease-purchase, was withdrawn for consideration by the Finance Committee at its meeting Tuesday night.

Meeting jointly last week were the town manager, school superintendent, finance committee and the computer advisory committee.

The outright purchase will be made through a bond issue, if approved by town meeting. This will result in a considerable saving over the lease-purchase process, since interest on the bonds would be in the vicinity of 4.5 per cent, while 9.5 per cent annual interest charges would be in effect on the lease-purchase.

The town is planning to purchase two Digital Equipment Co. computers and an ADMINS system for software.

The school department would have one of the computers and would house it at the Regional Vocation school on River Road.

The ADMINS program will be utilized by town departments in record-keeping, financial reporting and budgeting.

School department needs include, in addition to financial operations programming, computer assisted instruction in the schools, with additional terminals.

FinCom members, meeting Tuesday night, discussed the computer proposal, but have not as yet taken a stand.

Of particular concern to the FinCom is the school department plans for computer operations with their anticipation of additional terminals over a period of 15 years.

Put John Buckley in his proper place.

There's a perfect place for people like John Buckley—U. S. Congress.

Because it's not often you find a man of his fine character and experience. During his eight years as Sheriff of Middlesex County, John Buckley earned a reputation as an effective administrator with productive ideas.

Ideas like offenders paying back the victims of their crimes, getting juveniles out of adult jails for hardened criminals and starting a work release program where inmates pay their taxes rather than wasting ours.

When you have a vigorous man like John Buckley, and he's running for Congress in the Fifth District, experience tells you that he should be your Congressman.

You'll have a Congressman who supports the Kemp-Roth Bill which would lower your taxes by one third over the next three years and favors reducing wasteful government spending by cutting the amount government has to spend.

John Buckley also wants to stimulate our economy and provide jobs by changing the capital gains tax laws.

With John Buckley in Congress you can be sure that Washington won't forget the Fifth District.

That's why the place for John Buckley is in Congress—where he'll do you the most good.

He's perfect for the job.

Board Fills Vacancies

At the annual meeting of the Bon Secours Auxiliary officers and directors were named to fill vacancies existing on the board of directors. Mrs. William Hickey was returned to the position of first vice-president; Mrs. Goerge Lisauskas was elected second vice president and Miss Claire M. Toye was re-elected to the position of recording secretary.

Seven new members of the auxiliary were named to the position of Director: Mrs. John Breen, Mrs. Paul C. Courtemanche, Mrs. J. Harold Eastwood, Mrs. James Jordan, Mrs. John Mallen, Mrs. Richard K. Mallen, Miss Iola Perry, and Mrs. Kasimir Ulaky.

Renewed to a second term on the board: Mrs. Harry R. Dow, III, Mrs. Frank J. Killilea, Mrs. William Land, and Miss Claire Toye.

Chosen to serve as chairmen of major committees: publicity, Mrs. James Jordan and Miss Kathryn Espinola; membership, Mrs. Arthur Jowett; program committee, Miss Evelyn Rancourt; legislative representative: Mrs. John Mallen and Mrs. William Land.

In addition to assisting the Bon Secours Sisters and the administration of Bon Secours Hospital in fund raising efforts to provide major needs at the hospital, Mrs. James A. Murphy, president, informed the members that the board was responsible over the past year for having given more than 6,000 hours of committee work as well as 2,964 hours of in-hospital service to Bon Secours Hospital.

Continuing to serve in their respective positions, in addition to Mrs. Murphy as president, are Mrs. Vincent B. Landers, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Augustine P. Sheehy, treasurer; and Miss Gail Griffin, assistant treasurer.

Child Labor

The first legislation dealing with child labor was a Massachusetts Bay court order in 1640 which called for town magistrates to investigate the possibility of "teaching the boys and girls in all towns the spinning of the yarn," according to the U.S. Department of Labor booklet, "Labor Firsts in America."

Resource Center Seeks Volunteers

The Greater Lawrence Y.W.C.A. Women's Resource Center, a free information and referral agency, is seeking volunteers for a 24-hour hot line for women who feel they're in some kind of crises, and for transportation and shelter for battered women.

The Center evolved about a year ago, particularly to fill a gap in local services for battered women.

It is involved in many areas of interest to women, including client advocacy and follow-up.

The Center, at 38 Lawrence St., is currently planning a six-week hotline training course for fall. It will involve approximately two and a half hours of in-class training per week, followed by three in-house training sessions. Listening and assessment skills are the focal aspects of the course, taught largely through group discussions and role-playing sessions.

No specific training is required for transportation and shelter volunteers, though learning experiences and helpful tips are swapped at monthly meetings.

Transporters are asked simply to drive a woman and her children from a designated point near the woman's home to a given point near a shelter. Shelterers are asked to provide living space for a woman and her child or children for up to two days. All other necessities, such as food and child care, are the responsibility of the Center.

Persons interested in this type of commitment are asked to call the Y Center from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and ask for Chloe.

Card Party Tea By Auxiliary

The Bon Secours Auxiliary will sponsor a Card Party and Tea on Wednesday, September 20, at 2 P.M. in the Hospital Auditorium. Original table prizes and many door prizes will be awarded. Reservations may be made by contacting Chairman Mrs. John Keefe or Co-Chairman Mrs. Edward Kelley.

Committee members are Miss Mary Cahill, Mrs. Harold Eastwood, Mrs. Michael Ferris, Mrs. Joseph Galloway, Mrs. Frank Killilea, and Mrs. Alexander Marier.

Apples Sure Sign Of Fall

Baskets of bright red apples at roadside stands and farmers markets are a favorite sign of fall, and many orchards are now open for "pic-your-own" enthusiasts.

(For a listing of apple orchards, send a stamped self-addressed envelope to the Massachusetts Department of Food and Agriculture, 100 Cambridge Street, Boston, MA 02202).

The bumper crop forecast in the Bay State is 2,405,000 bushels, up some 6 per cent over 1977. The New England crop estimate is 1 per cent less than last year, but the U. S. apple harvest forecast is up 11 per cent to 175,141,000 bushels!

While Massachusetts is "McIntosh Country", other varieties grown here extensively include Cortland, Red and Golden Delicious, Spy, Macoun, Spartan and Idared.

If you pick or purchase apples in quantity, be sure to keep them in the refrigerator to maintain their freshness and crisp texture. In terms of preserving the fresh quality of apples, one day's storage at 70 degrees F. room temperature is equivalent to about 10 days in the refrigerator!

Counted three to a pound, apples provide only 80 calories each. As one of the most popular, readily available and economical fruits, they are an important member of the vegetable-fruit group recommended by nutritionists. Fresh apples also provide essential food fiber and bulk to the diet.

The history of apples in America is closely interwined with Massachusetts. Apples were imported from England as early as 1629 by John Winthrop, Colonial Governor of the Bay State. Governor John Endicott planted the first nursery of young fruit trees at Danvers, and perhaps the most famous apple propagator of all was John Appleseed — John Chapman, who was born in Leominster in 1774.

Mr. and Mrs. Terence P. MacDonald

MacDonald - Caughey

At home in Stoneham, are Mr. and Mrs. Terence P. MacDonald, who were married June 24 in Reading.

The bride is the former Karen Lee Caughey, daughter of Mrs. Robert B. Bell of Reading, and formerly of Andover. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacDonald of Malden.

Father Collins officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony at St. Athanasius Church, and a reception followed at Joe Binette's Chalet.

Given in marriage by Thomas Martin Caughey, the bride wore a Bianci gown of layered chiffon trimmed with Venice lace, and a chiffon veil also trimmed with Venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Janice M. Doyle of Andover served as maid of honor, wearing a yellow gown with chiffon cape and matching hat. The bridesmaids, Kathy Serwood of Melrose, Susan Bell of Reading and Sherrill MacDonald of Malden, wore matching rainbow gowns in pink, blue and green. They carried rainbow nosegays of roses and carnations.

Mrs. Bell chose a long, V-neck gown in sea mist green chiffon over a floral pattern, and a wristlet of daisies and roses, for her daughter's wedding, while the groom's mother wore a blue V-neck gown with long sleeved jacket, and a corsage of daisies and roses.

Brian MacDonald of Malden was best man, and ushers included Richard Caughey of Reading, William Stearns and William Harrington of Melrose and Archie Christian of Dorchester.

The new Mrs. MacDonald, a graduate of Andover High, attended Salem State College and is involved in sales for S. S. Pierce Co. in Woburn. Her husband, a graduate of Malden High School, attended North Adams State College, and is employed by the Rohtstein Corp. in Woburn.

They took a wedding trip to Orlando, Fla.

Fire Alarm

Unfortunately, nobody has come up with a Fire Insurance that will prevent fires. Properly maintained and engineered buildings can help prevent them though. When we handle your Fire Insurance we tell you more than just the price. Often we can point out relatively minor improvements that can reduce your premium, and your likelihood of a fire.

But whatever Fire Insurance you buy from us, you'll know it's the best available for the price. We'll stake our reputation on that.

Machine Village Programs

The Merrimack Valley Textile Museum is planning a series of forums on the history of Machine Shop Village, the neighborhood surrounding the Davis and Furber textile machine-manufacturing company in North Andover. The forums will be held at 8 on Wednesday evenings during September and October at various community centers. Each forum will feature a short talk on one topic relating to the neighborhood's historic architecture, its institutions, and its people.

Following each talk, the audience is invited to participate in discussion of the neighborhood's future as well as its past. The discussion will focus on possible ways to preserve the neighborhood's architectural heritage and its traditional sense of community.

Following is the schedule of forums:

Sept. 20 at the Fountain Drive Elderly Housing Project, 18 Fountain Drive. Thomas Leary, "The Davis and Furber Family: Workers of Machine Shop Village, 1860-1920."

Oct. 4 at the Trinitarian Congregational Church, 72 Elm St. Rev. Herbert Schumm, "Religion in Machine Shop Village, 1860-1978."

Oct. 18 at the Stevens Memorial Library, 345 Main St. Peter Hornbeck and Steven Roper, "The Architectural Heritage of Machine Shop Village."

The forums are presented with the aid of the Massachusetts Foundation for Humanities and Public Policy, a program of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

"I'm Jim Shannon. I was born and raised here. John Markey quickly moved here the day before he announced his candidacy for Congress. If I win...will he pack up his bag and go home?"

"I like John Markey. We agree on some issues. One issue we don't agree on is... opportunism.

"I am against the practice of suddenly establishing a residence in a district where a political office has become vacant. I know many of you feel the same way.

"In Massachusetts, we call such transients 'blow-ins' or 'carpetbaggers.' Webster's Dictionary defines 'carpetbagger' as follows:

"A person who takes up residence in a place, with no more property than he brings in a carpetbag, to seek special advantages for himself."

"Now maybe these labels are too extreme for a politician like John Markey. But I do feel strongly that his campaign for office here shows a lot more political ambition than it does a desire to help the people of this district.

"You tell me... how can John Markey claim to understand the problems of our towns and neighborhoods if he's never lived here?

"Why doesn't John Markey run for Congress in his own district? Simple. His brother is already the congressman there.

"Why is he spending all that money on all those commercials where he poses like a local boy in front of our canals and courthouses? Is he using this kind of high-powered electronic campaigning to try to convince you that he's not an outsider?

"Only you can decide that on election day.

"I want to say on my behalf that your congressman can do one hell of a better job for you if he's lived and worked among all of you for many years.

"I was born in Lawrence. I played in its streets throughout my boyhood. My father's been a family doctor here for 35 years. I worked summers here during college. And I now practice law in the Lawrence/Lowell area. My family and I know thousands of people here. I've seen all the good times and bad times in our area. I know all the neighborhoods and their problems like the back of my hand.

"I know just what we need in Washington. And how to get it. My message is that inflation can be controlled.

"And I'm asking for your vote because I know I can represent you a lot better than a stranger from another place.

"I want to be the best congressman you ever voted for."

'Rabbit Patch'

Benjamin Bunny is portrayed in patch art, by Cora Pettit Martin, a former Andover resident, whose 'patch pictures' are currently on display at Memorial Hall Library.

Patch Pictures On Display

On display in the Children's Room of the Memorial Hall Library are the creations of Cora Pettit Martin of Cumberland, R.I., formerly of Beech Circle, Andover.

"Patch Pictures," a combination of fabric and sketching, depict such familiar storybook friends as Paddington Bear, Winnie the Pooh and Peter Rabbit.

Mrs. Martin, daughter of Stephen Pettit of Royal Crest Drive, North Andover, is a graduate of St. Augustine's School and Punchard High school '55. She gives credit to her former Punchard art teacher, Frances Dalton, as the person who kindled her interest in art. Mrs. Martin went on to further her art education at Boston Museum School but only in the last 3 years has she developed her "patch pictures." "There is very little art created especially for children. My pictures are designed to be felt as well as seen," Mrs. Martin explained.

Adults as well as children are invited to drop by to say hello to their favorite childhood storybook friend in the display which will continue in the Children's Room of Memorial Hall Library throughout the month of September.

Junior Gardeners To Meet

The Andover Junior Garden Club will hold its first meeting of the season at the Downstairs Meeting Room of the Bay State Bank on Main Street on Saturday, Sept. 16 at 10 a.m. A demonstration of dried flower arranging will highlight this session. Spider plants and plant cuttings to root and pot will be distributed to the children so that they may grow them for exhibit competition in the Andover Garden Club's Flower Show to be held Dec. 8-9.

Membership in the Junior Garden Club is open to all children of the town, grades 3-8. Any child with an interest in plants is encouraged to join. Projects for this year's monthly meetings include making a terrarium, building a bird feeder, planting seeds in flats for spring, and a conservation project.

Maritime Presentation

A new mixed media presentation, entitled "Voyage of the India Star," recreates Maritime Salem and the China Trade, at Pickering Wharf, Derby Street, Salem. The show goes on daily, 9:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., on the half-hour.

Teacher-Pupil Ratio Maintained

The School Committee Tuesday night approved one and a half additional teachers for the elementary schools, based on the number of pupils who turned up in class a week ago.

One fourth grade class will be added at Sanborn School, and a half a kindergarten

Dr. Willitts Opens Practice

William J. Willitts, M.D., recently announced the opening of his practice in gastroenterology and Internal Medicine at 88 McGregor Street, Manchester, N. H. He has also joined the Medical Staff of the Catholic Medical Center.

Dr. Willitts, a graduate of St. John's Preparatory School and the University of New Hampshire, received his Doctor of Medicine Degree from Boston University School of Medicine in 1973.

Following his internship and a two year residency at the Carney Hospital, Dorchester, he was selected as a Fellow in Gastroenterology by the Lahey Clinic, Boston. During the two years of his Fellowship, Dr. Willitts worked in all areas of the Clinic's Gastroenterology Department. His special interests are in esophageal disorders and in the early detection of gastro-intestinal malignancies through the use of a variety of fiber optic endoscopes.

Dr. Willitts is a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine, an Associate Member of the American College of Physicians and a member of the American Medical Association. He is also a member of the Boston Gastroenterological Society.

He and his wife, Diane, and their two children live on Andover Street, Andover.

Diabetes Tests

As part of the United Way's "Roaring Twenties" Campaign Kickoff, the Greater Boston Diabetes Society will be conducting free Diabetes screenings, Thursday, Sept. 14, from 9 to 4 on the Boston City Hall Plaza.

The screenings will be conducted in the Society's new Mobile Detection Unit/Van, and the test itself, done by the Capillary Blood Sugar method, is quite simple involving a drop of blood taken from the testee's finger placed on a specially chemically treated stick which is then inserted into a meter which immediately registers the individual's blood sugar level. The whole process takes between two and three minutes.

Appointments are necessary, so call the Greater Boston Diabetes Society.

teacher, or one session, will be added at Shawsheen, to bring those classes into line with system-wide staffing policy.

With the exception of one large first grade at Sanborn, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said he was generally pleased with teacher pupil ratios throughout the system. The classes were originally set up last April on the basis of projected enrollments.

The Shawsheen kindergarten teacher is being added to avoid one class of 32 youngsters, projected enrollment last spring was for 30 youngsters, and the administration had hoped to make due with additional aide time, until more youngsters enrolled.

At Sanborn, 94 fourth graders turned up last week, whereas 86 had been expected. The ratio for the three classes would have been more than 31 to 1 if the committee hadn't opted for a fourth teacher and a new ratio of 23.5 to 1. Tuesday night.

While some parents objected to a 27.5 to 1 ratio for the Sanborn first grade, the school committee and administration said they felt they were within their guidelines, with call for a 23:1 ratio "plus or minus 4 pupils."

They said they would be adding more aide time there, and Seifert noted that "nowhere" was there any indication that middle-size classes have any adverse affect on learning. He said youngsters are only affected when the classes go above 30 or so.

Committeeman Elaine Viehmann noted that the secondary ratios were getting near "luxurious," and asked the administration to keep an eye on them. The committee's general policy is for a 25:1 ratio, with 40 teachers per 100 students, at the secondary level.

For most of us, paying the bills is paying the price of wasteful Federal spending.

Nick Mavroules doesn't think it's right that a husband and wife both have to work and still can't make ends meet.

The cause of that problem is easy enough to name... it's called inflation.

But the solution to that problem has yet to be found... or so say the high-salaried Federal government "experts."

Nick Mavroules thinks the place to start working on solving that problem is with cutting out the waste in Federal spending.

Whether it be mismanaged Federal agencies, miles of red-tape and tons of paperwork, unnecessary "fact-finding" studies... the fact is that the Federal government wastes millions of tax dollars a year.

Tax dollars that come out of your paycheck.

Nick Mavroules has worked for a living, and paid his taxes, and paid for a mortgage, and paid the food bills for a growing family... he knows what it's like to work hard just to get by.

And if most of us have to get by on less today, Nick Mavroules thinks we should expect the same from the Federal government.

That's the message Nick Mavroules is going to take to Congress.

Because it's about time Congress heard your voice for a change.

Six Are Merit Semi-Finalists

Six Andover youths have been named semi-finalists in the 24th annual National Merit Scholarship competition.

Four of the semi-finalists are seniors at Andover High: Dianne Clendaniel, Robert J. Lenk, Jess I. Parks and Russell C. Serbagi; while Carolyn F. Katz is a senior at Phillips Academy and Andrea J. Paradis, a senior at St. Mary's High School in Lawrence.

The six were chosen from among the 15,000 nationwide semifinalists who were chosen from a national field of nearly a million students, on the basis of their scores on the 1977 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) they took as juniors.

They will continue in competition to be finalists and finally, from the finalists, actual scholarships will be awarded in one of three categories: National Merit, one-time $1000 scholarships, corporation-sponsored four-year scholarships and college-sponsored four-year scholarships.

Single Polling Place Studied

Andover's town election will remain in March, at least for the time being, as will the precinct lines and polling places.

But, a plan to provide a central location for all precincts of the town is being worked on by Town Clerk Elden R. Salter, with the approval and encouragement of the selectmen.

Selectmen, a few weeks ago, suggested that possibly moving the town election to November, with the state and Presidential election, might be advisable and proposed the matter be placed before the voters at the October town meeting.

Monday night Town Clerk Salter explained that combining the two elections, while possible, would be a most confusing proposition.

Due to state laws, there would have to be two separate elections held simultaneously with duplicate equipment and voting lists.

In other words a voter would have to go in and register for the state election, cast his ballot, then proceed through the line again and obtain a town election ballot.

Conflicting deadlines for registration of voters is one of the causes for the duplication of effort, Salter said. Assistant Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen felt that this might be resolved by discussions with the Mass. League of Cities and Towns.

Salter further explained that three communities have changed their election dates to fall in recent years, and at least one is contemplating a return to March.

North Reading is planning a referendum question on the town ballot this fall to determine if voters would prefer a return to March elections. Since the new date has been in effect, voting in municipal elections has dropped from 52 per cent to 40 per cent, in North Reading, Salter said.

The town of Agawam has a fall election conducted every two years, Salter said and the third town which changed its date was Saugus.

Salter said that while voter turnout in Andover varies for town elections, he would dislike seeing anything which tend to worsen voter participation in selection of their municipal officers.

Selectmen asked that he and the manager continue to look into the matter, but for the time being, dropped the idea of presenting the proposal to the October town meeting this year.

One Polling Place

As for the single polling place, Salter said he had been investigating the possibility of utilizing the high school gymnasium as single polling place for the whole town.

He said it would provide some economy, since the town would not have to rent polling places.

The high school is in the center of town and parking and traffic flow could be provided for ease of voting.

The gym is accessible to the handicapped, an important factor in providing polling places, he said, since federal laws are being contemplated concerning the removal of architectural barriers at voting locations.

It would be a dramatic change, but one which could be acceptable to the town, he felt, and selectmen concurred, asking to continue his study of the proposal.

The matter was brought up through his informing the board of the drawing of precinct lines as ordered a few years ago, which has resulted in some complaints. When the decision was made in 1975 to redistrict the town, the order was to distribute the voters equally among the eight precincts, and the current lines are drawn to accommodate that mandate, Salter told selectmen.

Seek Action On Postal Service

A letter to Andover's congressional delegation from the board of selectmen this week requests their attention be given to the condition of local postal service.

The letter is a result of efforts of the board to meet with regional postal service officials, which in three occasions have been cancelled.

In the letter to Senators Edward M. Kennedy and Edward W. Brooke and Congressman Paul Tsongas, selectman point to the deterioration of local service and their efforts to discuss the matter with George Walker, regional administrator for the postal service.

The letter, send this week:

"For a number of months now the Town of Andover has been suffering from very late delivery of the mail by the U. S. Postal Service. There is quite an involved history to this entire situation. In brief, when the major resorting of mail was relocated in Lawrence, it was promised to the Town of Andover and specifically members of the Development and Industrial Commission there would not be any deterioration in postal deliveries and, in fact, service would be improved. Mail which was typically placed in postal boxes at the Post Office by 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. routinely is now not available until after 10 o'clock. This has a very detrimental effect upon many of the down-town businesses within Andover.

"for the past five months, the town has attempted to discuss this issue with the postal authorities and to follow through to rectify this problem through normal channels. All of our efforts have been fruitless. Further, we have not been accorded the opportunity to meet with Mr. George Walker, the Regional Administrator of the Postal Service. On at least three different occasions when we have sought a meeting with Mr. Walker and other representatives of the Postal Service, engagements had to be cancelled. We can certainly appreciate his busy schedule and the need to modify appointments from time to time. A cancellation of three different appointments, however, is absurd. We would very much appreciate your taking action on our behalf to secure a correction in the slow service which we are receiving within Andover."

If you guessed the Honda GL-1000 you were almost right. It gets 40 mpg. If you guessed the new Rabbit Diesel, you get a perfect score. Who Owns The Land?

Just thinking out loud, as they say, about this business of mosquito control and prohibiting spraying or treatment on certain parcels of property.

In particular, there is the matter of the considerable acreage under the custodial care of the town conservation commission.

Thinking is that the town has appropriated the funds to purchase the conservation property and basically the "stockholders" of Andover, namely its taxpayers should have a say as to whether or not such parcels could be treated or not.

Last time around, apparently no one questioned the right of the conservation commission to remove their acreage from any spraying or treatment under the town's mosquito control program.

The conservation commission may be charged with the responsibility of acquiring maintaining and establishing some regulations as to their use — i.e.

prohibiting recreational vehicles, etc., although even that may be questionable.

But, we think, a logical question can be asked that if the town approves a mosquito control program, can the conservation commission legally prohibit treating the acreage which was obtained through funds provided by these same voters and taxpayers?

As for land owned by the Andover Village Improvement Society, that is another matter, since it is a private organization and obtains its property either through donation or from funds donated to the organization.

But, conservation commission land, if allowed to be treated, would certainly add to the town's coverage and efforts to relieving a stinging situation.

Since we paid for it, we own it, let's spray it and see if we can't get some relief.

The Primary

Tuesday is Primary election day in Massachusetts, with an abundance of candidates seeking consideration.

Primary elections characteristically produce low voter turnout, which we hope won't be the case this time around.

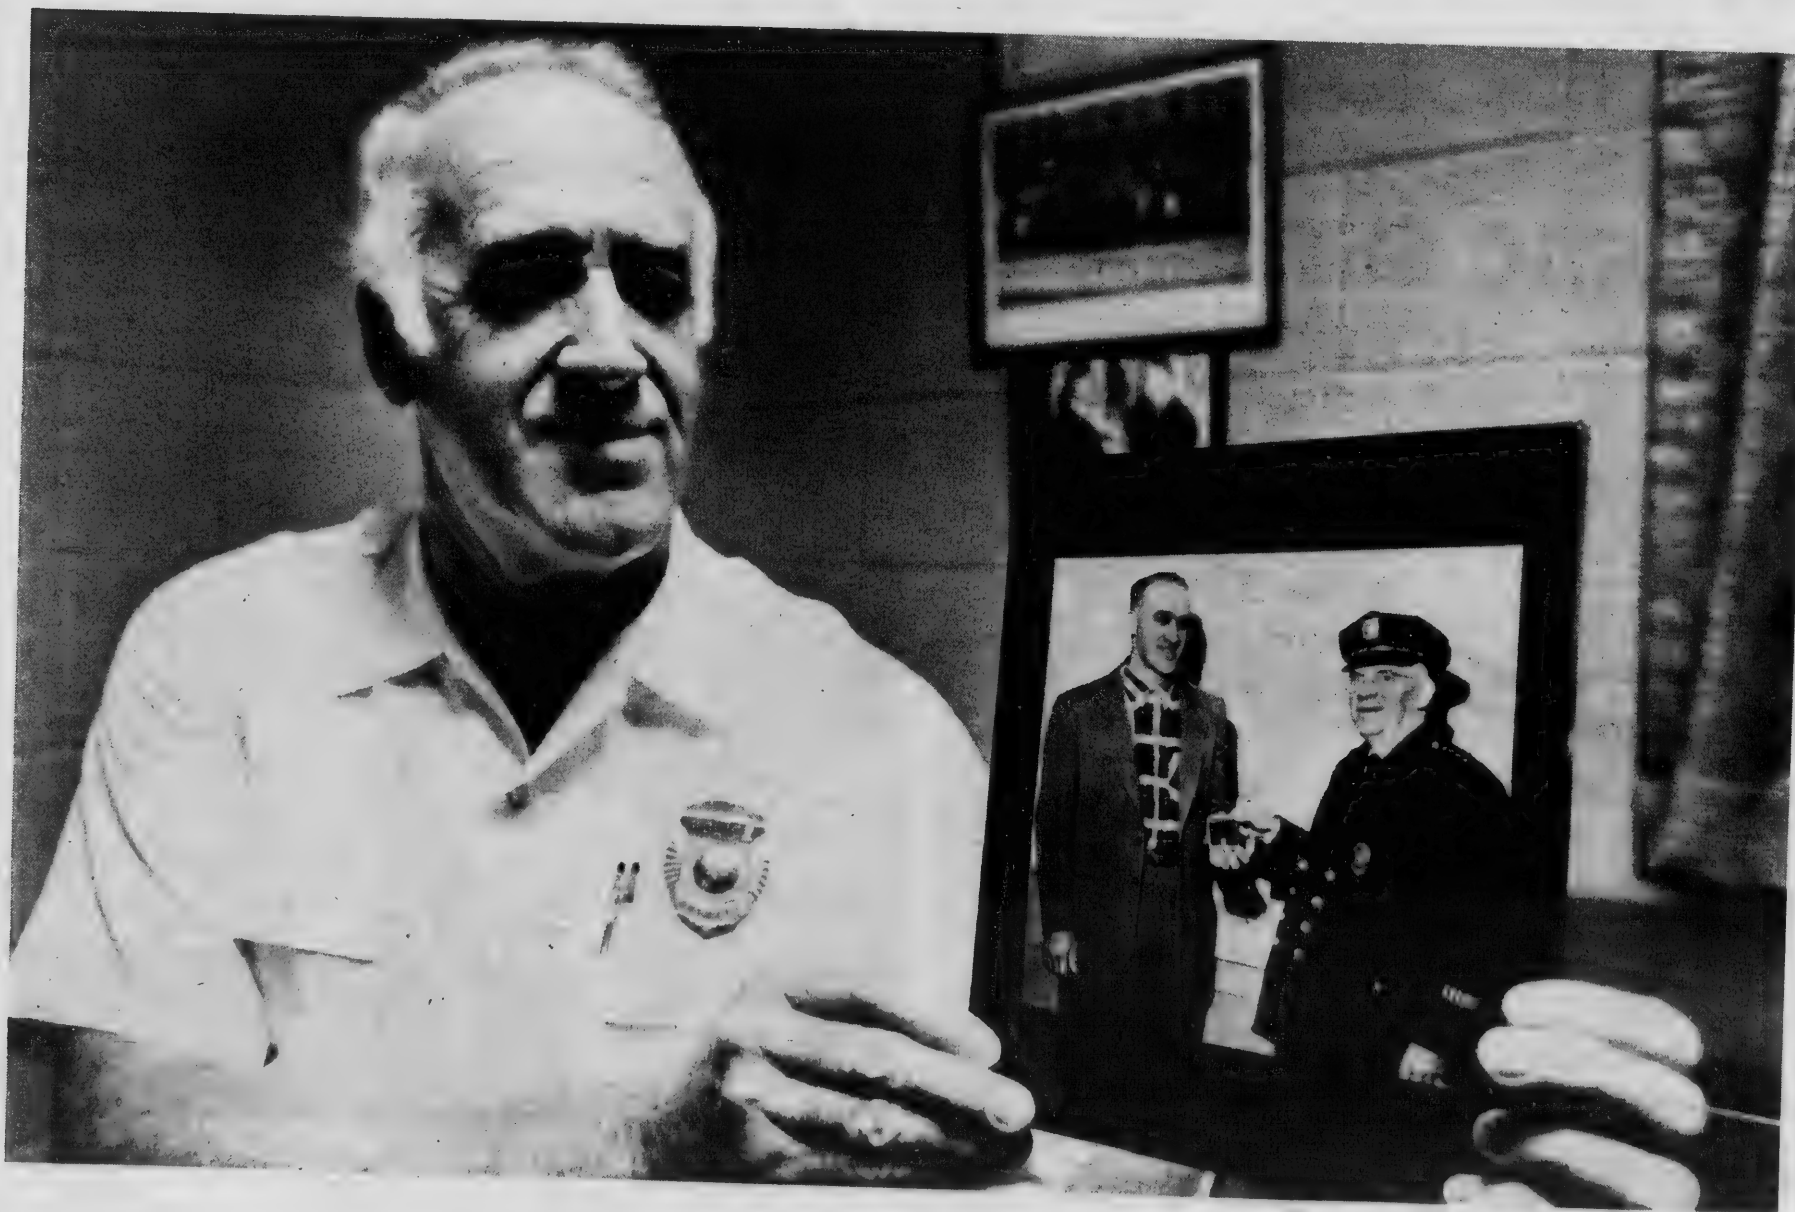

Candidates for senate, congress, state and county office have worked hard over the past several weeks to seek endorsement on Tuesday.

A substantial voter turnout on Tuesday will provide the candidates and their workers with the satisfaction that their efforts were not in vain.

It will also produce choices for the electorate in November.

Let's have a good turnout on Tuesday.

Notable Anniversaries

Police Chief David L. Nicoll this week observed notable anniversaries of service to the town. He began his 42nd year as a member of the police department and marked the 25th anniversary of his appointment as chief. Here, the chief is shown with a photo of himself and his predecessor, the late Chief George A. Barr.

Instrument Sale Is Planned

A new group, the Andover Orchestra Parents, has organized a used instrument sale. It is designed as a service to parents and students with unused or outgrown instruments, and to music students desiring to purchase an instrument. The sale will be held Saturday, Sept. 16 at South Church in Andover.

All types of instruments may be brought in between 9 and 10 in the morning and will be appraised by experts, who can also estimate the cost of any repairs that may be needed. Instruments will then be sold from 10 until 4. The Orchestra parents will keep a percentage of the sales price which will cover expenses and go to support future orchestra functions.

Margaret Warren of Tynsboro will be appraising strings and Bruce Weymouth of Methuen will be appraising wind and brass instruments. Both are professional repair persons.

JACK ANDERSON WITH JOE SPEAR WEEKLY SPECIAL

Somoza Survived the Quake in '72 May Lose Out in Political Quake

WASHINGTON — Nicaragua's embattled dictator, Anastasio Somoza, is hanging on to his job by his fingernails. His military subordinates are talking openly about a coup to depose him. Parts of Nicaragua have been paralyzed by a general strike.

The resentment against the Somoza family has been simmering for years. It erupted into the open last January after the assassination of Pedro Joaquin Chamorro. Chamorro was a brave journalist who had dared to criticize the dictatorship. His murder was the last straw for many political and business leaders.

We had worked closely, through intermediaries, with Chamorro. He helped us to document stories about Somoza. For example, we reported that the Somoza family had its fingers in virtually every business enterprise in the country. This was denied by Somoza's spokesmen in Managua and Washington.

We have now obtained classified State Department documents that back up the story. One describes the Somozas as fabulously wealthy. It is "highly unlikely," said the document, that the Somozas "pay taxes proportionate with their wealth." Another document charges that Somoza has used his dictatorial power "to advance his own business interest."

We also reported that the terrible 1972 earthquake in Managua offered Somoza yet another opportunity to stuff his pockets. This, too, was vigorously denied by his spokesmen.

Another classified cable, however, states that many Somoza enterprises were damaged by the earthquake but that "many will prosper from the reconstruction."

The cable points out, for instance, that Somoza owned a company that makes construction materials. This was expected to profit on the reconstruction of Managua. The classified document also declares that Somoza's cement plant "should hit full capacity."

According to the cable, the dictator's transportation, banking, real estate and farm equipment companies could expect "a banner year" in rebuilding Managua. Despite the earthquake, the U.S. diplomats concluded, "we believe 1973 will be a good year for the Somozas in general, and the General in particular."

Somoza survived the 1972 earthquake. But he may be brought down by the political earthquake that is now rocking Nicaragua.

Help Wanted: Last January, the Agriculture Department's No. 2 man, John White, resigned to head up the Democratic National Committee. For the past eight months, the White House has been looking for a replacement.

Several candidates have turned down the offer. Some have been scared off by Bert Lance's ordeal. Others felt it would be a thankless job. The deputy secretary is expected to speak for the farmers, but there isn't much sympathy in the White House for higher farm prices.

The White House now has its eye on a new prospect. He is Buster Hancock, chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission. This is the outfit that hired Anita Bryant to sing the praises of Florida oranges on national television.

Hancock's name is about to be submitted to President Carter for his approval. But there are two problems. First, Hancock is a millionaire orange grower, and many agriculture leaders believe the deputy secretary should be more sympathetic to small farmers.

The second problem may turn out to be even more awkward: Hancock isn't sure he wants the job.

Foreign Aid: We reported last week how the United States helped to rebuild war-torn Japan after World War II. There is another angle to the story that has become newsworthy today.

For two years after the surrender, the Japanese economy was in shambles. The yen was almost totally worthless. The proud Japanese, nevertheless, considered it demeaning to work for their conquerors.

U.S. military bases desperately needed local workers. So the Americans offered to pay a 10 percent bonus to Japanese citizens who would work for the U.S. government.

Today, the yen is soaring and the dollar is plunging. These bonus contracts, therefore, are costing the American taxpayers more than $26 million every year.

Now, the General Accounting Office has charged that the Pentagon is paying more than it should to foreign nationals all over the world. As a starter, the government auditors called for the immediate elimination of the 10 percent bonus in Japan.

But Pentagon officials told us they are "locked in" to the bonus contract. Behind the scenes, they are trying to get the Japanese government to pay the bonus.

THE TOWNSMAN, SEPTEMBER 14, 1978

Look at the record. Ray Rourke can do more for the Fifth District.

Ray Rourke's record speaks for itself.

While in the State Legislature for nine terms, he co-authored and pushed through the Legislature the first Massachusetts Clean Waters Act. He wrote legislation resulting in motorists emergency aid call boxes being installed on our highways. He was on the committee that computerized the legislative process. And, he voted against every attempt there was to increase income, sales, and excise taxes.

As Assistant State Secretary of Transportation, he has been working with private industry to help solve their transportation problems and keep jobs in Massachusetts.

As Mayor of Lowell it was Ray Rourke who spoke before the U.S. Senate on the merits of the Lowell Urban National Cultural Park. And it was Ray Rourke who worked 48 hours straight to bring the City of Lowell out of the worst blizzard of the century.

That's why these Andover people are voting for Ray Rourke.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — September, 1903

Buchan and Francis is the name of the new firm just formed for the purposes of carrying on a furniture business at 16 and 18 Park street just across from the engine house. Both members of the firm are well known in town for upholstering and jobbing.

Rev. James McDonald, OSA, a native of this town, who has been teaching at Villanova College for some years, has been assigned to teach at St. Augustine's College in Havan, Cuba. He has been visiting with his parents on Cuba street and sailed Monday for his new assignment.

Work will begin shortly upon the new playstead designed to provide within a short time a gridiron for the Andover boys to use for this season's football. It probably won't be as level as one would like the first year, but improvements will follow.

A young scholar was found to have diphtheria on Monday at the Indian Ridge school and classes were dismissed for the day as health authorities treated the building.

Local railroad patrons have been extended a rare opportunity for an excursion to Lake Winnepesaukee on Saturday, Sept. 17. The train will leave Andover station at 9 a.m. and the cost will be $2.

50 Years Ago — September, 1928

The public schools which began their first full week of operation on Monday had a total enrollment of 1459 which is just ten shy of the registration of a year ago.

The Andover fire department held a special meeting Wednesday night to test the Combination 2 apparatus at the Stevens Street bridge.

Evelyn Fettes took three first place awards and Carl Swenson made the best record for boys in the annual Poms Pond swimming carnival which closed the season last Sunday.

The assessors announced the annual tax rate this week as being $25, which is 50 cents less than that of a year ago.

Many changes in buildings and grounds greeted the eyes of students returning to Phillips Academy this week. Members of the faculty returned last week after a summer of study and travel.

25 Years Ago — September, 1953

James R. Lynch is to be appointed sergeant in the police department, filling the vacancy created by the promotion of David L. Nicoll to chief.

Phillips Academy opened this week with an enrollment of 740, 110 of which will be first year students.

Students who reside outside the Andover area but who attend local schools will face expulsion in cases where the tuition is not paid in advance.

Drummond Bissett of North Main street, has been elected military substitute teacher in the Andover school system replacing Donald D. Dunn, on military leave.

Lt. Gov. Sumner Whitter will be the guest at the first meeting of the Andover Service Club for the new season which will be held at the Andover Inn.

Hearing Tests Are Scheduled

The Andover Haven has announced a new hearing conservation program for Andover senior citizens in cooperation with the Boston Guild for the Hard of Hearing and the Exchange Club of Andover.

Hearing screening tests for adults will be given in the Guild's completely equipped mobile unit staffed by a highly trained non-commercial audiometric technician. The Boston Guild for the Hard of Hearing is licensed by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. Early detection and treatment of hearing loss often can greatly alleviate the problem.

Volunteers acting as receptionists are Dr. John Schrader, James McAloon, Norm Merrill, Arthur Jowett and Attorney Philip Sullivan. Public health nurses from the town will follow up test failures to aid them in obtaining medical assistance, if needed.

The mobile unit will be located at the Andover Haven on Essex Street in Andover on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 20 and 21. The hours of testing are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. The tests are free due to the Exchange Club's sponsorship.

Warriors Host Wakefield Saturday

By Rick Harrison

The Andover High football team launches its 1978 season this Saturday afternoon at 1:30, hosting non-league foe Wakefield High at Eugene V. Lovely Field.

This marks the first regular season meeting between the clubs, although they were pre-season scrimmage rivals back in 1974 and 1975.

"We really don't know too much about them," related Golden Warriors' Head Coach Dick Collins earlier this week. "We came to a mutual agreement to scout each other's final pre-season scrimmage. I understand they had someone watching us at Wellesley last Saturday, and we sent Pete Anderson to their workout against Dracut.

"Dracut beat Wakefield, but they're a good club and will probably beat a lot of people this season," related Collins. "In general, we learned that Wakefield is not particularly big and it is basically a running team.

"We expect a tough game. Wakefield has a fine football tradition and comes from a good league (Middlesex)."

Other Merrimack Valley Conference teams that have played Middlesex League schools in non-league openers recently have fared very well. Wilmington held an edge over Stoneham, and Tewksbury had excellent success against Belmont in brief series that were terminated this year by the Middlesex teams.

Wellesley Scrimmage

The Golden Warriors conducted their second and final pre-season scrimmage at Wellesley last weekend, losing 18-8, and Collins came away with two different reactions.

"We had some rookie officials in training, and they called so many penalties it disrupted our offense," observed Collins. "I'm not saying many of the penalties weren't justified, but it seemed like every time we had a long gainer it was called back.

"We took statistics at the scrimmage, however, and after sitting down to analyze and re-assess everything we actually looked pretty good overall. We moved the ball extremely well."

When the first teams were on the field Wellesley held a slim 12-8 edge, and the final TD came when the Bay State League member had its first offense working against Andover's second defensive unit.

"They (Wellesley) were 4-6 last year, including a pair of one-point losses," commented Collins. "They are a veteran club, and are supposed to be decent this season.

"One thing they did was throw up a defense we weren't prepared for. We thought we knew what to expect, but they fooled us," laughed Collins.

The lone AHS touchdown came on a 10-yard pass play from quarterback Manny Silva to veteran wide receiver Paul Farnham.

"Farnham had an outstanding scrimmage," praised Collins. "He was incredible, catching everything thrown his way. I know he had nine receptions, plus several others that were called back by penalties."

Also called back was a flashy 70 yard TD scamper by junior halfback Mel Berger.

"In addition to Farnham, Silva and Berger, all five offensive backs ran well. Bill Stahley was impressive at running back, and we've got to find ways of getting him in the lineup," stated Collins.

"The defensive line showed some improvement over its performance against North Andover. Of course, Ed Reming and Kevin Peters didn't play against North Andover and they did against Wellesley. That made a distinct difference," observed the veteran Andover skipper.

"The only serious flaw was our tackling, which wasn't as crisp as it should be. I'm confident that will improve, however."

Regular Practices

Collins and staff have not deviated from the normal pre-game practice routines this week, except for Monday when a full practice was held instead of the usual light workout.

"On Monday we generally take it easy, reviewing the movies of the previous game, going over the scouting report on the next opponent, and working in the weight room," explained Collins.

"But last Monday we spent a long time on all phases of the kicking game."

Junior Dave Nardone will do the punting Saturday against Wakefield, although Stahley is still looking good as the back-up, and Silva will handle the placekicking chores.

Starting Line-Up

Nardone, Driscoll and Collins will be the linebackers, with Dan Grams and Westwood transfer Bob Surret at halfback. Lucey will handle the safety position.

Schedule

Andover, which carries a modest one-game winning streak into the game, launches Merrimack Valley Conference play Saturday, Sept. 23 at Tewksbury.

Other non-league games this Saturday involving MVC teams include Chelmsford at Lowell High, Methuen at North Andover, Central Catholic at Lawrence Voke, Tewksbury at defending Eastern Mass. Division II Super Bowl champ Boston College High, Billerica at 1977 EMass. Division III Super Bowl team Ipswich High, and Masconomet Regional at Dracut.

Austin Prep and Lawrence High open their MVC schedules at Veterans Stadium, while Wilmington has a bye but will stage a controlled scrimmage against Stoneham.

While Andover is at Tewksbury next Saturday, other MVC contests have Dracut at Billerica, Chelmsford at Lawrence, Wilmington at Austin, and Central at Methuen.

Four swimmers from the Andover YMCA, Bob and Elinor Wright, Richard Hahn and Ed Ratyna, also representing New England Masters, came home with a total of 14 medals swimming in their various age groups.

Elinor Wright swimming in the 50-54 age group captured seven medals by placing in the 200 m. free relay, 200m. back, 50m. free, 200m. medley relay, 400m. free, 100m. back and 200m. free mixed relay.

Bob Wright swimming in the 55-59 age group won 5 medals placing in the 50 m. free, 200m. free relay, 100m. breast, 200m.

medley relay, and 100m. back.

Richard Hahn and Ed Ratyna swimming in the 35-39 age group each got a medal swimming on the New England "C" 200m. free relay team. In the 200m. medley relay a medal was within grasp for Dick and Ed, but another team edged them out in the final heat. However, each had the personal satisfaction of placing in the top 20 of all the events they entered.

Warrior Booters Prepare For Opener

The 1978-79 version of the Andover High Soccer team is ready for the season opener against Tewksbury.

The results will be history when you are reading this report, but the home opener will be Friday, Sept. 15 against Wilmington, last year's number two finisher. Game time will be 3:30 at the high school field, with the Junior Varsity playing at West Elementary.

After viewing all the league teams in the jamboree last Sunday at Chelmsford, one could only predict that it will be a very close race for first place this year. The distance between the first and last place teams should be much closer. Almost all the teams were hurt by graduation, but none more severely than Andover which lost all its starters. Andover, however, plans to be in the thick of the race for the League title again this year as it was last year.

Billerica, which went to the finals of the Eastern Mass Tournament before bowing to undefeated and unscored upon Needham, lost some of their strength, but still retain All-American goal-keeper Aron Rood, and high scorer Bob DiMatteo, although the latter may be lost to injuries for the first part of the season. Billerica should be favorites through the season.

Second place Wilmington lost many seasoned veterans to graduation but four of their starters are back and they will continue to play their fast aggressive style of soccer. They have filled in well and can not be counted out.

Andover 3rd place in 1977, will be in the race until the end of the season. Last year's fourth place team, Chelmsford, is looking for its strongest year yet. Methuen and Tewksbury look to be improved over last year. Lawrence will have a hard time filling the shoes of Paul Lima who was their workhorse and high scorer. Last years bottom teams Austin and St. ZJohn's will be much more experienced, as St. John's lost almost no one. Austin will retain a nucleus along with all league goal tender, Brian Hebert. With this line up there will be some tough and exciting soccer as the caliber of play improves every year by leaps and bounds.

Andover had a big job to fill the shoes of all its departing seniors. The only player returning who started on a regular basis is Tri-Captain Tom Keefe who will again be a winger for the Golden Warriors. He will be joined by Rusty Serbagi at wing. Rusty will be taking the place of Rich O'Hara who is trying out for the Soccer team at Ohio Wesleyan. Andover looks for crosses and scoring from these two fine wingers.

At the striker positions will be Tri-Captain Gary Cohen and David Yates. They will be taking the place of Dave Farrell, last year's high scorer and candidate for Springfield Colleges Freshman team, and Peter Chiklis varsity starter at North Adams State College. The starting halfback positions will be filled this year by Peter Price, Eric Ketzler, and Eric Brandt. They will be taking over for Carl Gutermann who will be playing at Northeastern, Tony Cammaratta who will be a varsity starter at Eckard College in Florida and Dave Johnson who is trying out for the Springfield college freshman team.

Andover's defense has to be the most suspect prior to the opener as none of the starters have seen varsity action. Starting in these positions are goalie, junior, Jeff Nicastro, and at fullback Andy Powell, Greg Moss, and Dan Merrigan. They take over for Bob Zwicker going to Bentley, George Donovan who will play at Holy Cross, and Neil Faigel going to UMass. Nicastro will be replacing both Art Defusco and Chuck Ness, last year's senior goalies. Tri-Captain John Kinsky is the utility man for the team, very skillful and fast and he has the ability to play any position when needed. There are many juniors in the wings who will be substituting throughout the season, and looking to earn a starting position.

Impressive in preseason practice have been returning letter men Steve Luby and Bob Wilkins, along with last years Junior varsity players Tom Wiseman, Mark Reed, Dave Hotham and Steve Rosen.

New Grid Coach At P.A.

Athletic Director Joseph Wennik has announced that George W. Best, a member of the Academy faculty since 1958, will succeed Steve Sorota this fall as head coach of football.

A mathematics instructor and co-author of two textbooks, Best has been on the football coaching staff since joining the school. He has both assisted and substituted for Sorota, but he has specialized in coaching the sub-varsity level where he has had many fine seasons. His fall 1975 team, for example, was 6-0 and unscored upon.

Born in Albany, N. Y., Best attended high school in Scotia, New York, and in 1946 matriculated at Union College where he played four years of football as a half-back. In his senior year he was leading ground gainer and scorer on Union's undefeated team and was elected to the Little All-America Team. After graduating from Union in 1950, Best served as assistant football coach at Hotchkiss during the undefeated seasons of 1951 and 1952. He then spent the next four years as an United States Air Force fighter pilot in the Korean War and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. Discharged in 1956, Best became head coach of football at Pomfret Academy where his teams were undefeated for two seasons.

Since coming to Phillips Andover in 1958 as Mathematics Instructor, Dormitory Counselor and Ski and Football Coach, Best has been an active member of many faculty committees, including the committee on Residential Life, the Faculty Athletic Committee and the Curriculum Committee. He has been the Secretary-Treasurer of the Mathematicians Association of America, New England section.

As Ski coach he has been chosen National Junior Nordic Chairman and the Eastern Junior Nordic Chairman. Recently he assisted in establishing the Billy Koch Cross Country League in the Andover area.

He and his wife Helen, who presently is the Dormitory Counselor of Abbot Stevens East, have eight children, four in college, three at Phillips Academy and one at East Junior High in Andover.

During the winter and spring months the Best family runs a Maple Syrup home industry; and in the summer the Best's move to Seattle where they engage in fishing for salmon from their own boat.

Mr. Best, the Academy's choice from among many qualified candidates, assumes the Head Coach position as his son, Bill, Co-captain of Andover's 1977-78 team, reports for football at Dartmouth College.

The U.S. Department of Transportation's Federal Aviation Administration employs more than 1300 women air traffic controllers.

Babe Ruth Tryouts On Weekend

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team, recently-crowned playoff champions of the Greater-Lawrence League, will conduct a pair of Fall tryout sessions this Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 16 and 17, at the Andover High varsity field.

The session on Saturday will run from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, while the Sunday workout is scheduled for 2-4 p.m.

All Andover youngsters between the ages of 13 and 15, who will not reach their 16th birthday before Aug. 1, 1979, are eligible to participate.

Although the 1979 Andover team will not be selected until after a similar set of tryouts next April, the Fall tryouts are used to see which boys are most interested in playing next summer.

Andover recently completed the 1978 season with a 20-11-2 overall record, including a 5-1 mark enroute to the playoff title.

The locals finished second to North Andover during the regular season.

Andover has won 20 or more games during each of the past six years, and the overall record for the last five seasons is 106-45-8.

This past summer the team finished with a rush, going 15-2-2 over its final 19 games.

Once again next July, for the sixth straight year, the Andover team will travel to Montreal for a series of games.

Those wishing additional information should contact either Rick Harrison (475-2007) or Ed Kelley (475-0605).

The fatality rate on the nation's highways since 1955 has fallen from 6.34 deaths per 100 million vehicle miles to 3.25 deaths by the end of 1977, according to the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Church School Begins At South Church

South Church in Andover extends an open and enthusiastic invitation to join in its new church school year beginning on Sunday, Sept. 17 with new programs, new hours and a new curriculum.

Church School classes for all ages will begin at 9:15 a.m. and will include programs ranging from nursery care for children under 3 to adult education classes concerning such topics as "Christian Social Ethics," being organized by Dr. Roger Wiehe, "Heaven Help the Family" a discussion course about the Christian family, and a Bible study course "Christ in You," to be led by Mr. and Mrs. David Cardinal and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jehl.

At 10:30 a.m., while children in fifth grade and above attend church services with their families, a new "Discovery Room" will welcome children from 4 years to fourth grade with games, stories, music, crafts and worship. This program, while designed to be a constructive Christian learning experience, will be distinctly different in format from the first hour. Crib Room supervision and a class for 3 year olds will also be provided during this time.

Gregg Meserole, a second year student at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and a native of Burlington, Vt., has been called as youth minister for both Junior and Senior youth fellowships and will also be assuming responsibility for the Senior High Sunday School class. A graduate of the Academy of Arts and Scientists, will be our feature speaker.

Plans for a parish youth show were presented by Joe Tisbert. The musical production will be presented in December. Practice days have been tentatively set for Sunday and Wednesday. The show is open to all Junior High and High School Youth. For more information follow the Church Bulletin or call Joe Tisbert.

High School youth (Sophomores up) were invited to sign up for the third annual R & R Weekend to be held at Camp Fatima, N.H. on Sept. 23 to 24 (after football). Of added interest this year will be sharing the weekend with youth from St. Patrick's of Roxbury and Father John Mulloy.

St. Robert's combined youth (seventh through twelfth grades) were also invited on a Fall Foliage Mountain Hike in the White Mountains to take place on Oct. 8 weather permitting.

Phillips Academy and Princeton University, Gregg has taught in Senior High School in Maryland and has coached basketball and football in addition to his experience as a youth director. He, his wife Katherine, and ten month old son Jeremy, will soon be making their home in Andover.

Tomatoes, Squash, Best Buys

Native cukes, tomatoes and squash lead off the list of best produce buys for September.

Some of the sweetest corn of the season is also available during the cooler weather after Labor Day, says the Massachusetts Food and Agriculture Department. Both the white "Silver Queen" and bi-colored varieties with white and yellow kernels will be in good supply.

Other good native vegetable buys this month are Boston, salad bowl, red leaf and romaine lettuce, peppers, potatoes, eggplant, carrots, and green, red, Savoy and Chinese Cabbage. Turban squash, a fall variety, will be a good buy as well as summer yellow and zucchini.

The apple season is underway, with early McIntosh and Puritan varieties available now and the late McIntosh and Cortland apples due later in the month. The harvest forecast for Massachusetts is 2,405,000 bushels, up 143,000 over last year.

Fresh native cranberries will be available in mid-September. Massachusetts is again predicted the number one cranberry producing state in the nation, with the crop forecast at 950,000 barrels, up 9 per cent over 1977.

Other good September buys in native fruit are blueberries, Concord grapes, peaches, Italian prune plums, muskmelons and "Sugar Baby" watermelons.

Native eggs will be a good September protein buy, and chicken should be one of the best buys at meat and poultry counters, as broiler-frying marketings will be 8 to 10 per cent above a year ago. Turkey and pork supplies are increasing seasonally, and the chuck cuts will be the better buys in beef. In fresh native fish, pollock, cod, haddock, flounder and mackerel should be the best values.

Raytheon Gets Into Publishing Equipment

Raytheon Company and ECRM, Inc. of Bedford have announced approval of an agreement in principle under which Raytheon would acquire ECRM, a manufacturer of automated publishing equipment for newspapers and other printers.

Raytheon's board of directors endorsed the agreement today. It was approved yesterday by the ECRM directors. Under the agreement, Raytheon expects to acquire all of the approximately 1,200,000 outstanding shares of ECRM for $3.60 per share.

The transaction, subject to the completion of a definitive merger agreement and to the approval of ECRM shareholders, should be completed in October.

The company's products are used at more than 300 locations, mostly newspapers, around the world. Sales for 1978 are estimated at $9 million.

ECRM has three principal products: a text entry and editing system used by medium sized and smaller newspapers and by other publishers and in-plant printers; the laser scanning Autokon camera that digitizes, scales, enhances, and adds a halftone screen to prepare photography for printing; and a line of optical character readers used in newspaper and word processing systems.

A Raytheon spokesman said ECRM would complement the product lines of Raytheon's Automated Graphics business that currently offers RayComp advertising composition systems and is presently completing an automated newsroom editorial system for the Washington Post.

ECRM was founded in 1969. The firm has 150 employees and occupies a 51,000 square foot building in Bedford.

Exercise Program For Employees

Hewlett-Packard Medical Products Group, a leader in the manufacture of cardiovascular and pulmonary diagnostic equipment, is providing its employees in Andover, with a jogging-exercise course.

Such a course is a natural for HP which places as much concern for its employees as it does for its products. "We are committed to cardiovascular health in our business, and it makes sense to extend this to our employees in the form of a benefit," says Burt Dole, general manager of the facility. "Besides, we have a vested interest in the health and vigor of our people, and this exercise course is going to be good for productivity."

Exercise courses, sometimes called life courses, originated in Europe, are very popular in the Scandinavian countries and are now catching on the U. S. Hewlett Packard believes that the current movement to exercise and physical fitness in the U. S. is more than just a fad and is vital to the well being of its employees.

The company is providing $5000 for the necessary equipment and supplies for the course. The employees themselves are providing the labor.

The concept of exercise courses is to provide an opportunity to use and strengthen all major muscle groups in a challenging and fun way. The HP course consists of a track with 13 separate stations for exercise which vary from toe touches to chin-ups. The stations are separated by 100 — 200 meters along a path that winds through a wooded area. A typical route begins with warm up exercises, includes sit ups, push ups, and other exercises, and provides a total of a mile of jobbing between stations.

Exercise And Work

Hewlett-Packard employees have an exercise program consisting of a jogging track and exercise stations at their West Andover facility. Here, a runner jogs along while a worker installs an exercises station sign.

The Andover Division of HP began operations two years ago on the 110 acre site along the Merrimack River. In addition to the exercise course and the plan currently located on the site, there is room for 6 additional buildings to support up to 4000 employees.

Standex Has Best Quarter

Standex International Corporation (NYSE) achieved new records in sales, earnings, and earnings-per-share in both the fourth quarter and full fiscal year ended June 30, 1978. The diversified company forecast that fiscal 1979 would be "another record-breaking year."

Daniel E. Hogan, Chairman and Chief Executive of Standex, stated that "fiscal 1978 ended on a very strong note. By any standard, the fourth fiscal quarter was the best quarter in the history of Standex." Mr. Hogan added: "Barring a severe downturn in the economy, we expect Standex to show another significant gain in sales and earnings in fiscal 1979 over the record year just ended."

In the year ended June 30, unaudited Standex reported that net income rose 27% to $10,350,000.

Polaroid

there appeared to be no complications.

Water and sewer lines to the area are adequate, and present no additional cost or capacity problems to the town.

Widening of River Road in the area, a project contemplated since the announcement by Hewlett-Packard to locate there several years ago, has been scheduled by the town and will be rescheduled now, Clark said.

Environmental impact studies and other planning for completion of the interchange at Route 93 and River Road will also be advanced, Clark indicated.

The interchange now is only partial, with the state having indicated in the past that the entire cloverleaf would be completed at some future date.

Palmer indicated that the company could see no major problems in moving their construction plans ahead in concert with the town working on meeting the various conditions and providing approvals.

Reiterating the impressiveness of the Andover preparation for providing for industry at the West Andover park, Palmer said the company is faced with the problem of "we have to build and we have to move rapidly, and Andover had the site all ready for us."

The building which will be larger than the present Hewlett-Packard plant, will be adjacent to the 109 acres held by H-P.

It will be set back from the access roads into the industrial area developed by Arkwright-Boston insurance, owners of the industrial land. The parking lot will be to the rear of the plant and the cafeteria will look out onto the hills and woodlands nearby. Green areas will be preserved and landscaping will enhance the area, Palmer said.

R. M. Bradley, industrial real estate firm, is handling the property sale negotiations.

Charles Doblin, spokesman for Arkwright-Boston, said the firm was "excited about the intent of Polaroid to locate in their West Andover park."

The Polaroid decision will leave in the vicinity of some 400 acres still to be developed in West Andover and added that there are two prospects currently eyeing the property with an intent toward development. Possibly the Polaroid decision may speed up decisions on the part of the other prospects, Doblin said.

Doblin also credited Andover's official family for assisting in the Polaroid decision to locate here.

He noted that industrial development commission members, planners and the administration, had "everything together, which was a real selling point and assisted in cementing the decision by Polaroid."

Doblin said Arkwright "couldn't ask for a better neighbor for Hewlett-Packard, than Polaroid, a top-notch, prestige company."

Hewlett-Packard actually has about 117 acres in the industrial park, but about eight acres are given over to green area and conservation use, including a strip to continue a trail along the Merrimack River initiated by Andover Village Improvement Society.

The Polaroid decision follows on the heels of major industrial developments in the Lowell Junction area. Instrumentation Laboratories of Lexington has announced its intent to purchase some 50 acres of industrial land north of the Gillette plant and is working with public works officials on location of sewer and water lines prior to initiating construction of a $3.6 million building.

Cressey-Dockham, a wholesale food outlet is planning a $2.75 million expansion of its facilities in Lowell Junction.

As for the sudden industrial development, Town Manager Clark described it as coming "in timely fashion. With the town anticipating some major school renovation and construction projects, industrial development will make the incumbent additional tax burden not as great as it could be."

What do these North Andover residents have in common?

Eleven different people, with eleven different kinds of concerns.

But all eleven share one common goal... to see Nick Mavroules elected as the 6th District's next Congressman.

All of them know that Nick Mavroules is an experienced administrator who's been making tough decisions on complex local government problems for nearly two decades. They all know that Nick Mavroules makes his decisions based on the merits of each individual issue, not on the basis of a political ideology.

They all know that a vote by Nick Mavroules in Congress will be a vote for the cities and towns of the 6th District.

And they know that Nick Mavroules will give North Andover a voice in Congress. Because it's about time Congress heard your voice for a change.

Auto Haus Champions

It took an extra game to decide this year's Recreation/Community Schools Department's Men's Softball League championship, but the team representing the Andover Auto Haus brought its' late season surge right into the final contest and nipped The Sport Shop 4-3 in extra innings to take the crown.

While most league observers had counted the champions out of the running for the top spot due to mid-summer injuries to a few key players the Auto Haus went undefeated during the last of the season and managed to overtake the slumping Howe Agency and tie The Sport Shop to force a play-off for first place.

The first six finishers in the standings qualified for the play-offs which got underway late in August.

Andover Yarn & Craft Shop — New Classes Now Starting

Instruction classes in knitting, crocheting, needlepoint, macrame, bargello, weaving, Japanese Bunka embroidery, crewel, and other hand work will be starting at the end of September at Andover Yarn & Craft Shop, 7 Elm Street, Andover. Stop in and sign up for day or evening classes. Classes are of 4-week duration, but students in classes may stop in any time during that period for extra help at no extra charge.

Opened just one year ago this month, Andover Yarn & Craft Shop is already a familiar name to lovers of fine hand work, as a source of supplies for every project they plan to undertake. Owners Dorothy Falco and Barbara Phelan offer assistance and advice with directions or problems on any project made with supplies from their shop and give demonstrations for clubs and organizations. They also do finish work so your project looks professional: finishing needlepoint pillows, latch hook rugs, bell pulls, crewel pillows, also mounting and framing any hand work.

New lines are being added all the time, to meet the needs of their customers. Andover Yarn & Craft Shop now carries Stanley Berroco yarns, Candide yarns, Shetland wool. They carry only quality yarns, all wool, lopi, poems, Brunswick wools and arcylics, Reynolds Reynaire (80% orlon, 20% mohair), Elsa Williams tapestry yarns, Patter-nayan needlepoint and crewel yarns.

Weaving has been added recently — classes and supplies. It's easy to learn and you can rent a loom, if you wish, to get started. Japanese Bunka embroidery, which looks like an oil painting with yarn, is another new art you may want to try. Or perhaps counted cross-stitch, which is similar to needlepoint.

Andover Yarn & Craft Shop has an excellent selection of rug canvasses, supplies for latch hook rugs, kits of all kinds, as well as instruction books. Senior Citizens receive 10% discount on their purchases.

Stop in soon — they have an un-advertised weekly Special every week, and browsers are always welcome. Andover Yarn & Craft Shop is open six days a week: Monday through Saturday from 9:30 to 5. Tel. 470-1078.

PRICING YOUR HOUSE RIGHT

The value of your house is not what you think it is — or what the buyer thinks. It is determined chiefly by the location, the neighborhood, and the current market. An overpriced house sitting on the market for months becomes almost impossible to sell. So first, you must get in line with the market. That means a realistic appraisal.

Nobody — but nobody — is more acutely aware of the current housing market than your local Realtor. A capable Realtor can bring in his own appraisal expert or even a team of salesmen who will individually price your home and then reach a fair consensus. Or you can hire a qualified independent appraiser. You may be pleasantly surprised to find out that you were intending to price your house for less than its fair market value.

If possible, your price should include curtains, draperies, refrigerator, air-conditioners, dishwasher, built-ins. It's a better package deal and may hasten the sale.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover, Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Historic Building Survey Completed

Andover's Historic Building Survey, conducted by the Andover Historical Commission, was officially presented to the selectmen Monday night by Philip Dargie, co-ordinator.

Dargie, high in his praise for those who worked on the project since its inception in 1976, presented a set of the completed survey to the board, one of five produced through the commission's efforts.

One set has been given to Memorial Hall library and is available to the public.

The volumes contain information and pictures of some 865 homes, or buildings in Andover of historic significance.

Owners of the homes, or persons having information about the particular structures are encouraged by the commission to review the survey and if additional information is available to forward it to commission members.

Also planned is future updating of the survey.

Dargie told selectmen Monday night that the survey was undertaken with $5,000 in funds provided at the 1976 town meeting, along with matching grants from the U. S. Department of Interior and the Massachusetts Historic Commission.

The project was implemented with the assistance of Nancy Stack a professional historical architect who specializes in providing communities with historical surveys.

Of invaluable assistance, Dargie said, was Juliet Mofford of North Andover, who is a professional historical researcher, who provided research for the project, and assisted in determining additional structures which should be included in such a survey.

John and Hillke Brucksch, who were curators of the Andover Historical Society, provided the photography services for the survey and Norma Gammon was the artist who provided the cover design.

Clerical assistance was provided by a mother-daughter team of Lois and Linda Temple.

The surveys have been distributed to the library, Massachusetts Historical Commission, Andover Planning Board, Andover Historical Society and Andover Historical Commission.

Selectmen praised the efforts of the commission.

FALL . . .

It's Towne Deli Time!

It feels as if the frost is on the pumpkin — well, almost on the pumpkin. The days are shorter . . . the kids are back to school and "at home" activities are again in full swing.

That's a special time to sate heartier breakfast appetites with a Towne Deli breakfast treat. There are dozens of appealing ways you can do that here plus the added enjoyment of the light banter that starts your day off right.

Then comes the mid-day break. For the man in town or the woman of the house who has got half the day's chores completed, that's the time for lunch at the Towne Deli. Anything from a sandwich to heavier fare . . . it tastes better here because our quality and know-how make it better. Enjoy it in our pleasant dining areas and when our glorious New England Indian Summer permits, delight in the Fall outdoors at one of our Cafe tables.

The Towne Deli . . . it's always an extra treat! Come and enjoy yourself often.
